Violence

Violence is not a fun game so stop playing it
Hurting people is not cool, not even a little bit
Hurting others only hurts yourself
It doesn’t make you tough, it makes you look like a little elf

Crazy things happen everyday
I know some people have to pay
I hear guns, arguments, and people crying
When I hear those things, my insides start dying

I turn on the TV and see someone dead
They lay on the stretcher like it’s a bed
I think about what I can do
But after seeing people really hurt, I have no clue

If you are in a situation, just walk away
Cause I know you wanna live another day
When I hear lives go by
I stay sad and cry

Violence is really not worth it
Cause you really get no benefit
So before you do something violent stop and think
You don’t wanna lose your whole life in a blink

Your parents will be stuck in the silence
And I will always be there yelling “Stop the violence!!”
