Violence

You get bullied
At ages five and nine
But then when you're older
You start to realize
That you can do something about it
From time to time.

When I'm at home
I think of violence,
Seeing bad images in my head
As time passes.

If you're at school
And there's something "different" about you
People start saying things
That definitely aren't true
So it turns into a fight
Where someone gets hurt
I try to break it up
Even though I might get hurt too
But it's worth standing up to
To stop all this violence
A friend is a friend
And I will save you from anything.
