VIOLENCE

by Ariel Morales

One day I came home to see my mom being beaten by my dad, I was so scared I didn’t know what was going on so as soon as he took off in his car I ran down stairs to see if my mom was ok. She said she was ok but I could tell that she wasn’t so my mom called the police but they didn’t do anything. When my dad came back he was so mad he kicked open the door and said why you called the police. I said because you were hitting her. He said “stay out of this is between me and your mother “my moms said don’t talk to her like that. Then he slapped her across the face. I ran over and bit his hand he through me agents the wall and he just left and drove off in his car and after that my mom called the police again so they came to the house and started to investigate but they didn’t find any prints or anything so they looked again and again finally they found a strand of hair. In the living room so they brought it back to the lab and it was a match so they tracked him down and brought him t jail for twenty years so it was good for me and my mom we could fina y go home without him hurting us anymore
