Do the right thing contest
The students are violent
Their thoughts have become silent
All the rules are being bent
So much time is being spent
What has become of our youth
So many lies, but there's no truth
The violence must be reduced
Because soon it will not be excused
It's the everyday affects
That the students don't regret