Violence Essay Poem 2-14-12

Violence

Violence is Everywhere
It's here and there
It affects your life
Even if you have a wife

Violence is Everywhere
It's even in your hair
Violence can scare you
Even if you hear a boo

Violence is Everywhere
It even affects a polar bear
Violence is very hard to deal with
So you must stay really stiff

Violence is Everywhere
Even if you care
Violence leads to tears
Which is what we fear

Violence is Everywhere
That's why we are scared
Violence is anger
It is very danger
