violence

Violence is everywhere in your home, school, community. Violence is affecting us because we do stuff without thinking then the consequences. Let's start school violence bullying bullying is very serious, kids do suicide because they can't support it and they tell themselves, now let's talk about community violence, this is the most that has violence I think the government should do something lots of people are dying because of gangs, some times I think that the government just thinks for themselves they just see all the kids that's happening and they just sit around, if I were them I would try and end that so there would be peaceful
