Kathy: (crying on her bed)

Narrator: The next day Kathy decides to put more makeup to hide the black eye and she wears a long sleeved shirt, and pant to hide the bruises. Every time when Kathy is alone she would be punched and kicked by Princess. One day her parents heard that she was skipping school so one day when she was running away from school, at home her mom was waiting for her.

Katie: (Sees Kathy) Kathy come talk to me.

Kathy: (crying) Yes, mom.

Katie: What's going on?

Kathy: Princess from the 8th grade is bullying me.

Katie: She is? Do you have any bruises?

Kathy: (wipes off the makeup and pulls up her sleeves and her pants to let her see all the bruises.
Katie: OMG! You are not going to school until you heel. Go to your bed and rest or eat or watch TV.

Kathy: Yes, mom.

Narrator: While Kathy was resting at home Katie went to the Candy Middle School to talk to the principal Ms.Candy. When she got home she talked to Kathy again.

Katie: I talked to your principal and she has moved Princess to another Middle School that is closer to her house.

Kathy: Why didn’t I tell you guys earlier?

Katie: It is ok, as long as you tell us next time so we can deal with it or else you would have more bruises than you have now.

Kathy: Yes, mommy I promise I would tell you guys earlier next time.
