How does youth violence start? How can people get affected by it? What are the causes of youth violence? Because of youth violence in my community my daily life has changed by not being able to use the computer as long as I want.

Because of violence in my community I can't be able to use the computer as long as I want because people getting bullied.

Violence looks like to me is people getting hurt people dying people getting into fights. Because of violence in my community It's not safe to go outside. By taking action I can prevent the violence by protesting against violence.

Youth violence is caused by people getting bullied. It's also caused by people getting shot or killed or people getting into fights. It continues to grow around the world. It grows because people who were getting bullied think they were getting bullied so they think it's all right to bully other people.
I can help youth violence by protesting. It wont help if you cause violence. It will just get you in trouble. It will also lead for yourself as well. I can put up signs and campaign against it. Anyone can avoid violence by telling a teacher or another adult first.

Because of youth violence in my community, my daily life has changed by not being able to use the computer as long as I want. By writing a letter to the president, he might be able to stop the violence that is going around. I could walk around people's houses and get them to spread the word. Youth violence could stop by people being nice to each other instead of being mean.
