March 5, 2013
Do The Write Thing
contest

Intro

Have you ever heard something so bad? Violence, does it really make bad people glad? Listen to this rap, you might just get advice. First, don't back stab and run with your crew like mice. The thing you have to do is be nice.

1 how can violence affect our daily lives? Those who see it violence often obviously know why. It's because we're trying to fit in. Every fight you get in, you're trying to win it. Our daily lives? I hope you're not confronted to violence especially where you live. I hope you have a good city to roam. Come on. Are you to my neighborhood. Everything is silent. Everybody confronted has a key to a home without violence.

Your home. You can be the one to stand out. You can be the one with a what can to run out and shout. Violence is not the key. You do as you can create a new good tree. You can make an individual good friend in 1, 2, 3.

to reduce youth violence in your community?