Does it really matter
Does it really matter if your white
Does it really matter if your black
Dose it really matter if you have money
Does it really matter if you don’t have money
What really matter is the whole world becomes one
And be a family
What really matter is if we help the hungry people
In different country and give them some food and homes
What really matters if we just do the right thing