Violence

Violence is one of the biggest problems in the whole world. In the United States there are many crimes about violence. Violence starts with people getting into gang groups. The violence effect all the people. It effect us by people killing others everyday. There are many court cases about violence. We the people have to make the change. We need to stop the violence and to get a better life. Violence brings many effects to the people, like; killing, bulling everywhere, and crazynes. We the people can try to stop the violence in each part of the world. We can do it.