Violence

Violence is like a war, that people try to end. If we work together it will be easier to win this fight.

The causes of violence are people who are homeless, or people who have problems with drugs, also bad influence, media not having parents.

Let’s all work together to find solution to this problems, and I’ll help the others.

No more child abuse, No more animal abuse, let’s all stop. Let’s do the right thing and live like the king.

No more Violence!
