Guns are the primary weapon.
They kill people.

Both people and guns can kill by shooting someone down.

The reason why people buy guns in the first place is for protection.
But they just use it to kill others.

The government tries to take guns out of the public's hands, but they should have the option to carry.

Young people get into lives of crime because of their friends, and so the cycle never ends.