"Do the Write Thing: Violence"

Violence is a type of silence when people are pulling out on each other.

Even though we are supposed to respect one another, normal people are supposed to be nice to people as if they are your sister or brother.

Violence is breath taking, so let this提醒 of your re-awakening.

Loyalty is not something you should be fearing. Because abuse is something that can leave your heart aching.

Because abuse is something that
"Do the Write Thing: Side 2"

Can leave your heart aching.
So don't even let your pride get taken.

One way to cure it is to remember:
"Actions speak louder than words;"
And when you are upset, remember:
Actions are easier to be heard.