Violence affected my life in many ways. I couldn't even walk through certain places because of violence. I believe the cause of youth violence is what some adults do. Those that younger copy what the older do. "The only protection against injustice in man is power physical, financial, and scientific." - Marcus Garvey. This quote means to me to get power you have to be wise. Wise gives control over power.