Introduction: violence, behavior involving physical force intended to hurt, damage, or kill someone or something. There is no way to escape violence, and even if you find a way to escape it, what about the other people who didn't. Violence to me is when a person wants to inflict pain on someone else to make them do something or to hurt that person. One hand down, one hand up, if you find a way to stop violence, bring as much people with you as you can. Some or most of the problem was created by stereotypes and bragging rights. People who are judgemental are people who haven't found the meaning in life. Life is not to be the best, life is to be the best that you can be. If someone can tell that they haven't been affect by violence, they are wrong.
Hello, how are you doing? I'm doing well, thank you for asking. I've been busy with my studies and work. What about you? Are you enjoying your classes? I hope so. It seems like we're all in the same boat right now, trying to make the best out of our time. Let's keep in touch and support each other through these challenging times. Remember, we're stronger together. Take care!
