What I see & how I feel...

Every time I turn around, one of my friends or someone I know hits the ground, when I hear a loud sound.

It makes me wanna frown, violence keep going, until there is no more, it's hurting family's to the core, but all you can do is ignore, and try to make it through, and if you make the wrong choices, the next person can be you, but there's something we can do, change the way we act, make act of impact, and change our youth, stay in school, get to college, and do something with your life, make good choices, don't listen to other voices, do it for yourself, do the right thing.
